

Making a Difference for Patients: It's Up to U

At Ultragenyx, we strive to incorporate patient and family voices into everything we do.

Our CEO and President Emil Kakkis, MD, PhD says it best: "Patient engagement is not an abstract concept here at Ultragenyx. We want to live it. We want to do it every day."

Recently, our team took a moment to reflect on the critical and central role that patients play in our work to develop therapies that make a real difference. Watch our new video celebrating how U motivate and inspire us every day.

Sincerely,
The Ultragenyx Patient Advocacy Team
